

EAS Course:

On Condition Maintenance practice

Course Type: on-the-job training

Participants: priority will be given to EAS members unsure about OCM and those who will apply for a FOCA Maintenance Authorization in the near future

Attention: for the course we are in need of an aircraft, if possible with a Lycoming or Continental engine equipped with magnetos. The course fee will be waived for the owner

Contents:

- Oil replacement procedure, oil sample acquisition
- Oil filter cutting & inspection of filter element
- Differential Compression inspection
- Spark plugs, inspection and service
- External engine inspection, elements and guidance
- Ignition, magneto timing and adjustment
- Borescope, use of, what to look for, interpretation
- Propeller, blade play & blade tracking measurement

Date: Saturday 18 May 2019, 10:00 – 16:00h
(short lunch break 12:30 – 13:00, bring your own food)

Location: Locarno airport, LSZL

Trainer: Dan Ruiters

Number of Participants: minimum 2, maximum 4 people

Price of course: dependant on the amount of participants, maximum CHF200.- to be paid cash at the beginning of the course

Registration: latest 5th of May 2019 with your name, first name, and cell phone at maintenance@experimental.ch
Please let us know of any special study items request at the same time